Cape Cod Maritime Museum

Summer Unpaid Internship Opportunities

The Cape Cod Maritime Museum is seeking High School, Undergraduate, and Graduate School students interested in internships for the summer of 2024.

Internships at the Cape Cod Maritime Museum are an interactive opportunity for students interested in public history, material culture, and non-profit management, and involve participation in most day-to-day activities. Responsibilities include assisting the Curator with transcribing oral histories, conducting oral history interviews, interacting with the public, speaking to school groups, writing social media posts, and assisting the museum staff with other administrative or museum collections needs.

Prospective Cape Cod Maritime Museum interns will preferably have a background or demonstrated interest in history, American studies, museum studies, historic preservation, or another related field, and be prepared to spend 10-20 hours per week on their internship work. The ideal candidate will also have customer service experience and the ability to work independently on research projects. Must have own car or transportation.
